Women Faculty Moving Forward: A Pathway to Success in the Academy

Sponsored by the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women, the Lillian Lodge Kopenhaver Center for the Advancement of Women in Communication at Florida International University and the AEJMC Council of Affiliates, this fifth annual workshop is designed to help junior women faculty members move forward in their careers through mentoring, networking and preparing for tenure and promotion and administration or other leadership positions. It is designed for tenure-track women, but some exceptions may be made. We are seeking a cohort of 25 women for our pre-conference workshop on Aug. 8, 2017, 1-5 p.m. at the AEJMC annual convention in Chicago. Applicants must be AEJMC members.

Speakers, panelists and roundtable leaders include senior scholars and administrators and women colleagues who have achieved significant leadership positions in their careers. Keynote speaker is Lori Bergen, Colorado, past president of AEJMC and panelists include, Jean Folkerts, Kansas State; Michelle Ferrier, Ohio; Bey-Ling Sha, San Diego; and Maggie Rivas-Rodriguez, Texas at Austin.

In addition to the training and networking at this workshop, participants, who will be designated Kopenhaver Center Fellows, will be invited to take part in activities of both the CSW and the Kopenhaver Center during the year and receive publications of both groups. They will also be invited to reunite with previous cohorts to network at subsequent conventions.
